

Communications Internship

Position: Communications Intern

Organisation: iPro bono India

Term: Full-time / Part-Time based on availability

Location: Delhi office

Remuneration: A fixed stipend will be provided

Deadline to apply: 25.01.2026

The internship is for one month, with an option of extension for up to three months based on performance.

About iPro bono India

iPro bono India's mission is to enable people to access their rights in pursuit of a just society. We believe in holistic counsel, capacity building, storytelling, research, and policy advocacy to support social change.

By promoting active citizenship and engaging in a holistic model, we:

- Advance justice for all by representing people in need
- Strengthen the impact of civil society
- Advocate for policies that promote social equity

Our team works on cases involving child abuse, juvenile justice, disability rights, housing rights, rights of undertrial prisoners and engages in advocacy efforts on these subject areas. We also provide support in the form of legal assistance to NGOs across the country working on a range of issues.

The Role

Your responsibilities will center on content creation, distribution, and knowledge management to highlight our impact and engage the public effectively. We are specifically looking for someone who can support our communications team with design tasks, so a high degree of proficiency on Canva or similar design tools is desirable. We are also looking for a candidate with video editing proficiency for social media. You will work with our communications team in Delhi. You will also coordinate closely with our India programs teams to identify impactful stories in our key focus areas and ensure our communications efforts resonate with a wide audience.

The role will also involve researching references, best practices, and innovative formats to present our work effectively across digital platforms, such as reels, carousel posts, and other engaging and upcoming formats. This position offers a unique opportunity to learn from seasoned professionals while contributing to meaningful, high-impact advocacy.

Responsibilities

- Assist in planning and maintaining the social media content calendar across platforms
- Editorial and design support for publications and other outputs
- Support documentation of events, workshops, and field work through photos, short videos, and write-ups
- Support the creation of social media deliverables including video and audio content, as well as website content.
- Help track engagement and performance metrics and prepare monthly reports
- Support website content updates and SEO tagging where required
- Assist with archiving and organizing content, assets, and past campaign materials
- Support live coverage of events, launches, and campaigns, if any (stories, reels, quick posts)

Why should you intern at iProbono India?

This role is hands-on and learning-oriented. Interns will be encouraged to take ownership of small projects with close guidance from the communications team.

- Mentorship: Receive guidance and support from experienced communications professionals.
- Volunteer Opportunities: Support various events and workshops, gaining valuable exposure and contributing to impactful initiatives.
- Professional Development: Gain practical skills and experience that will enhance your career.
- Social Impact: Contribute to meaningful work that promotes social equity and justice for all.

Application process

If you're interested in interning with us, please submit your applications, including your CV and cover letter, to india.recruitment@i-probono.com. Successful candidates will be contacted for the next steps in the assessment process.

Please Note:

- Candidates are encouraged to apply at least one month before their preferred start date.
- Due to the high volume of applications, only successful applicants will be notified of the next steps